1. DESIGNING A BUFFET MENU: By selecting the specified number of dishes per category, you can craft a foundational menu with the corresponding basic cost, tailored to the size of your guest list.
2. Furthermore, incorporating dishes from the optional food categories allows you to enhance the menu and customize it to meet your unique preferences and needs.
  1. BBQ station & carving
  2. Cooking action station
  3. Seafood / fish
  4. Sweet & dessert
3. The optional food categories in the following list of dishes are marked with an asterisk or symbol as shown above. These dishes are not included in the basic cost and are offered at an additional charge, for which you will be informed in detail after selecting them.
4. Please refer to the event examples on our website for indicative guidance.

2nd : BUFFET STATION

1. In addition to the above method, you can also create a buffet-style menu with dishes separated by category. For example, Stand 1: Vegetarian | Stand 2: BBQ station & live cooking | Stand 3: Salads & Appetizers, Stand 4: Seafood, etc.
2. If your choices include dishes from the following optional food categories, as mentioned above, these are offered at an additional charge for which you will be informed in detail after selecting them.

3rd : SERVED STYLE

1. CREATING EVENT MENU WITH SERVED STYLE: By choosing one of the two serving styles indicated per category, you can create a menu tailored to your preferences.
  - a. Family style:
    - i. 2-3 Salads (per 4-6 people)
    - ii. 3-4 Appetizers (per 4-6 people)
    - iii. 1 or more main dishes (individual or per 4-6 people)
  - b. Plated service:
    - i. 1st course (Salads, Appetizers)
    - ii. 2nd course (Fish, Chicken, Vegetarian, or Seafood)
    - iii. 3rd main course (Meat, Fish, Vegetarian)
    - iv. Optionally, you can add a plateau between the courses or a velouté soup before the main course.
2. If your choices include dishes from the following optional food categories, as mentioned above, these are offered at an additional charge for which you will be informed in detail after selecting them.
3. In this particular serving style, additional dishes can be included before or after the main course is served. This could involve a platter (typically featuring meat) in the family-style service, or a velouté soup preceding the main course, or even a cheese and charcuterie platter in the plated service.
4. Please refer to the event examples on our website for indicative guidance.

4th : BUFFET & SERVED

1. It combines the above two types of serving styles.
2. Buffet: Guest reception with a standing buffet, canapés, live cooking dishes (risotto, pasta, etc.), and cocktails.
3. Served: Individual main course and dessert served at the table
4. If your choices include dishes from the following optional food categories, as mentioned above, these are offered at an additional charge for which you will be informed in detail after selecting them

COST POLICY

1. The final cost per person is calculated based on the basic cost (which is proportional to the number of your guests) and the choices you make from categories B, C, & D on page 25.
2. Event planners, photographers, decorators, DJs, musicians, and other vendors who are not part of the catering staff and will stay at the event venue to be served food are billed at a 1/2 ratio (one to two), indicating that 2 vendors are equivalent to 1 person. The discount is applicable for events with over 100 guests.
3. Children aged 3 to 12 are billed at a ratio of 1/3 (one to three), which translates to 3 children counting as 1 person. Guests aged 13 and above are considered regular attendees. The discount is applicable for events with over 100 guests.
4. To ensure an accurate calculation of the final cost for your event, we kindly request that you provide us with the exact number of guests attending fourteen (14) days prior to the event. This information is crucial for determining the total cost, irrespective of the actual number of guests present. Please note that any additional guests can only be added up to two days before the event.
5. For events held outside Tinos, please be advised that there will be an extra charge for ferry tickets and accommodation required for our staff.

We craft
